Accurint® for Collections

Locate debtors and shorten debt collection cycles

Billions of dollars in consumer loans are in delinquency at any given time, and credit issuers and debt collection services can only expect to retrieve a fraction of the amount actually owed.

Benefits

Improve your recovery rates with Accurint® for Collections, a powerful suite of skip tracing tools to help you locate both individuals and businesses, thereby improving debt collections and enhancing operational efficiency.

Over 4 billion records

Data compiled from more than 10,000 independent sources

Ranked results and phonetic matches

Administrative feature to monitor and manage users

Extensive search tips and online training

Locate debtors

Research has shown that as many as 35% of delinquent debtors move each year and 50% of all accounts received for collections require some form of skip tracing. The up-to-date, comprehensive Accurint® database can help improve your right party contact by 30%, by leveraging data from 4 billion public records on more than 200 million individuals. This powerful tool returns current addresses, unpublished and cell phone telephone numbers, relatives, roommates, associates, property, work and business locations to improve your skip trace efforts.

Shorten the debt collections cycle

Accurint® for Collections improves debt collections and enhances operational efficiency by helping collectors locate debtors quickly and easily through proven skip tracing tools and cost effective online resources.
